WILSON-HURD TO EXHIBIT AT ANTENNA SYSTEMS CONFERENCE

Wilson-Hurd will be exhibiting at the 2009 Antenna Systems Conference on September 1-2 at the Hyatt Regency in Philadelphia, PA. It is a two-day international conference focused on the latest and most important advancements in antenna systems and technology. The conference will serve OEM developers of products that utilize antennas and antenna systems, systems operators & engineers, antenna integrators and manufacturers, component and material suppliers interested in learning the latest capabilities and best practices in this rapidly changing field.

At the conference, Wilson-Hurd will have on display examples of its printed conductive ink circuits that are utilized within antenna systems.
